

The Kissing Booth by Beth Reekles

What do we learn about Lee and Rochelle in the first chapter of the short story? What kind of relationship do they have with one another? How does the author describe this?

The Kissing Booth by Beth Reekles

Lee tells Elle that 'This is the dream! This is the best time of our lives!' but on page 40, Elle realises that things will change the following year. In what way is The Road Trip a metaphor for life?

READALONG GUIDELINES

The Kissing Booth by Beth Reekles

- 1 Print off your readalong cards, cut them out and insert them into your books at the relevant page numbers.
- 2 On the evening of the 5th March, everyone will begin reading at 7.30pm.
- 3 In your first post, as you are about to begin reading, please tag as many of your friends and classmates as you like on Instagram, and perhaps show us where you've decided to settle down to read. Please also tag @worldbookdaysocial.
- 4 You can also tag the publisher @penguinrandomhouse, and the author @authorbethreekles if you would like to involve them in your discussion.
- 5 When you reach the first question, please post a photo of it, tag your friends, and start to chat. You can choose whether you prefer to do this via your feed or stories.
- 6 Repeat this every time you reach a question card.
- 7 Use #WBDReadalong, #KissingBoothReadalong throughout the reading experience. Feel free to use alongside other book-related hashtags of your choice.
- 8 Be mindful of spoiling the ending for others! Please avoid giving away important parts of the plot.
- 9 The readalong can take any form you like but we suggest an Instagram story or video. If you are doing the readalong with a friend, feel free to create a joint video. You could also create an Instagram Highlight for all of your posts.
- 10 When you have finished the book, please tag @worldbookdaysocial to let us know!
